Wind Energy Financing Handbook

Document Prepared Under,

EU-India Wind Energy Network (EIWEN)

Project Funded by,

European Commission

Preface:

Wind Energy Financing Handbook is the database of Financial Institutions, Banks and other Development Agencies in India and Europe, that have been identified by the stakeholders as the probable agencies to be contacted for any kind of wind related financing. The database has been divided into two parts. Part I contain names and contacts of Indian banks and financial institutions and Part II contains names and contacts of European banks and financial institutions. The handbook also contains a discussion on opportunities for European Financial Intermediation in India, it's various barriers and possible solutions. The discussion has been presented in Part III.

The information about listed banks and financial institutions has been obtained from the websites, catalogues and other publicly available sources. The handbook serves only provides initial pointers to wind project developers, turbine manufacturers, component manufacturers and other agencies to help them in the process of meeting their financial needs. A compilation of terms and conditions of these agencies has also been presented, wherever available.

Disclaimer:

The database presents only the indicative list of banks and financial institutions that may be relevant for wind energy financing. The list, by no means, is exhaustive. The information available in the handbook may change with time and needs continuous updating.
